

UNREMARKABLE

The book cover features a dark, atmospheric photograph. At the top, the title 'UNREMARKABLE' is written in a bold, white, sans-serif font. Below the title, a horizontal pipe runs across the frame. The background is a light-colored brick wall, which is splattered with numerous bright red bloodstains of varying sizes. In the lower right foreground, a large, dark tire is visible, partially obscured by shadows. The overall scene is dimly lit, creating a sense of mystery and horror.
