Original collection of music speaks to souls of listeners

Life's Lessons inspires us and entertains us as it calls us to a higher purpose

SAN JOSE CA - Singer and lyricist David Sample seeks to make a difference with his music.

Inspired by his own life's journey and faith in God, Sample pulls inspiration from his life experiences including his success's, failures and life altering decisions to create thought provoking songs. Listeners will be encouraged to reflect on their own lives.

Sample has committed to donating 90% of post tax sales to the gun reform efforts of Mr. Fred Guttenberg of Parkland Florida. Mr. Guttenberg's daughter Jaime was one of 17 students killed last February 14 at Stoneman Douglas High School. Mr. Guttenberg's effort is called Orange Ribbons For Jaime.

The seven track album ranges from the heartfelt Gospel song, River Of Life, inviting humanity to join hands in love, to a blast from the past with the blues tune, Dot Com Blues. Life's Lessons is available on CD Baby, I Tunes and many more popular sites.

WELL DONE

No greater battle is waged and won
Than the one from within the man
Who struggles to free himself
From the chains of self doubt

To find the courage then and know his way
As a man of purpose
Who delivers forth the promise
Of a life well done
