New Southern-Style 'Biscuits & Gravy Fixins' Introduced by Kentucky Kernel

Featuring Kentucky Kernel's beloved 'secret recipe' spices & herbs blend, consumers can now enjoy this southern breakfast classic together in one convenient package

(EFFINGHAM, IL) – FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – Kentucky Kernel has announced the launch of new Southern-Style Biscuits & Gravy Fixins, a convenient kit to help you cook up this fresh and hot comfort-food favorite right at home. Each package includes traditional southern buttermilk biscuits mix and flavorful white gravy mix featuring Kentucky's Kernel's signature spice blend. This southern breakfast classic pairing has never been more convenient or delicious.

The authentic, perfectly blended southern biscuit mix features premium flour, real buttermilk, and all the ingredients pre-mixed to cook up golden-crunchy on the outside and fluffy on the inside. And to complement the hot & fluffy biscuits, each 'fixins package' includes a special-recipe seasoned southern white gravy mix, featuring the perfectly seasoned Kentucky Kernel 'secret blend' of ten savory herbs and spices. It's a flavorful hometown diner and soul food favorite, ready-made to enjoy at home.

The new Biscuits & Gravy Fixins are made without artificial colors or flavors and only genuine ingredients. The mixes come in separate fresh-seal pouches to preserve flavor, and provide 8-10 biscuits per package. Certified OU Kosher, peanut and tree nut free, and contains no egg or soy.

The new product is now available for purchase from the Hodgson Mill online store and will soon be available through select retailers.

“This kit was a fast favorite – the kitchen filled up every time we cooked it up!” says Erin Goldstein, Marketing & R&D Manager. “Fluffy biscuits, savory white gravy – what’s not to love? You just add a little butter, some milk, and a package of breakfast sausage, and it’s ready in no time.”
