

VICTORIA KUSTOV

Realtor

EXIT Premier Real Estate

Victoria Kustov of EXIT Premier Real Estate has over a decade of experience and a sterling reputation as a “go-to” resource for both agents and clients alike. Helping buyers, builders, investors and sellers in Burlington, Bedford, Billerica, Wilmington, Chelmsford and surrounding communities, Kustov creates a personalized plan for every client, ensuring that they meet their goals. “I take the time to explain the process step by step,” she explains, adding that she is known for her resourcefulness and up-to-date insights into the industry.

Kustov moved to the United States from Latvia when she was 17, she learned to speak English and held many different careers ranging from medical secretary, office manager, web developer, and gym franchise owner. “All those experiences helped me to become a great real estate professional who can help in any situation,” she says, adding that she is fluent in Russian.

Every year since 2014, Kustov has been recognized as a Top Producer by EXIT Premier Real Estate. Relying on individual property websites, professional photography, and interactive floorplans to market her homes, Kustov acts in the best interest of her client, providing them with all the information they need to make informed decisions that are right for them. “Real estate offers many opportunities to help dreams of home ownership become a reality,” she says.

Kustov is a member of the Greater Boston Association of Realtors and the National Association of Realtors, and is a certified dog trainer.