China's Tiananmen Square CASME & Bloomberg Business Week Hosts Dr. Rollan Roberts in Beijing and Shanghai.

Dr. Rollan Roberts accepted the speaking invitation of China's small business association and Bloomberg China's Business Week conference.

Orlando, FL – November 6, 2018 – America's CEO and former CEO of the Hoverboard company, Dr. Rollan Roberts has accepted the invitation of China's Ministry of Civil Affairs of the People's Republic of China and Association of Small and Medium Enterprises to address several thousand business and government leaders at the Great Hall of the People in Tiananmen Square in Beijing, China November 23-25, 2018.

Dr. Roberts' remarks at the Great Hall of the People will be centered on the topic, "Influence on the Development of Industrial and Commercial Enterprises under China-US Trade War."

Founder of Courageous! Entrepreneurship and host of Courageous! Entrepreneur Radio on iHeartMedia, Dr. Rollan Roberts, will also speak at Bloomberg's Business Week Chinese conference in Shanghai, China December 6-7, 2018. His speech at Bloomberg's Global Business Week conference will center on Chinese enterprise and entrepreneurship as it relates to the rest of the world. He will speak to handling global crisis and creating high-growth global companies.

"As former CEO of the Hoverboard company, I know firsthand how formidable Chinese enterprise can be, and I look forward to collaborating and partnering with entrepreneurs and government leaders around the world to grow an ethical culture of global entrepreneurship," says Dr. Rollan Roberts.
