MENOMONEE FALLS, Wis., Nov. 28, 2018— Main Street Song and Dance Troupe, a performance group of acclaimed teen vocalists and dancers from Southeastern Wisconsin, is proud to announce the troupe’s 2018 holiday show “Christmas on Main Street”.

This family-friendly show features holiday classics as well as hits from modern holiday musicals such as Elf and How the Grinch Stole Christmas. Performances will be held at the Sussex Hamilton High School “Little Theatre” on Dec. 14th at 7:30 PM and Dec. 15th at 3:00 PM and 7:30 PM.

Tickets for the event can be purchased online with reserved seating at www.mainstreetsonganddance.org. A 33% discount is available when using the promo code CHEER, making this show an affordable and fun family outing at only $10 per ticket.

Children are invited to meet and take pictures with Santa at the 3:00 show on Dec. 15th, and all three shows feature an interactive sing-along section that kids—and kids at heart—will love.

According to Main Street’s creative director Jes Sudbrink, “New audience members are always shocked at the caliber of talent at our performances. This year, we wanted to provide a fun and lively Christmas show that whisks the audience into a world of joy and Christmas cheer.”

This December marks Main Street Song and Dance Troupe’s eleventh holiday show. Ann Farrenkopf, the president and co-founder of this nonprofit organization, formed the troupe with the mission of developing character and talent in young performers. Main Street Song and Dance Troupe’s remarkable vocalists and dancers have wowed audiences at hundreds of venues around southeastern Wisconsin and the U.S., including Summerfest, Marcus Center for the Performing Arts, and Disney World.

As stated by Ann Farrenkopf, "This Christmas show is one of my favorites because it is so family friendly and you will leave filled with holiday spirit. Our performers have been rehearsing since September, and their hard work has culminated into a wonderful event that the whole family will enjoy."
