

KAT Troulinos a local Houstonian, transplant from Southern California, mother of 3 adult children, 3 fur babies, and “Glamma “ to 4 beautiful grandchildren has re-created herself in the past 5 years becoming an Award Winning Staging and Design company “TA DA by KAT”. She is ecstatic to be published in Barb Schwarz’s latest book “STAGING THE WORLD”. Barb (who invented “Staging ®” traveled Europe last year and has gathered almost 100 stories from staging professionals throughout the world. The stories will amaze and delight you whether you have aspirations to be a stager or are just looking to have the courage to make a change somewhere in your life whether a relationship a difficult decision or from maybe a 9-5 to something that “lights you up” says KAT. KAT’s story is featured on page 236 and her work highlighted on the front page of chapter #16. KAT and her team of creative talented individuals have helped sell over $75,000,000 of real estate throughout Houston with the flair and memorability that creates the “emotion” that is needed for potential buyer’s to fall in love with a home. KAT says buyer’s justify price with emotion. “Our magical transformations create that emotion. To check out her portfolio go to www.tadabykat.com

KAT proudly boasts having received over 54 five star reviews on her Houzz profile. “We are very proud of our customer service and the experience and results we deliver to all of our clients is at the core of our mission” says KAT.

This gal must be doing something right!

"Staging The World" ..now on Amazon

