TimeLinx Announces Strategic Partnership with Azamba Consulting Group Adds Project and Service Management to Product Portfolio

North Andover, Mass., August 29th, 2019 -- TimeLinx, a leading project and service management platform for the mid-market, is proud to announce formal partnership with Azamba Consulting Group, North America's premiere Sage CRM consulting organization.

Azamba will offer TimeLinx project and service management platform – which is an integrated set of PSM technologies, processes, reports, controls, and tools – with the goal of helping service organizations to advance to higher levels of performance by overcoming barriers to growth and efficiency.

"By offering the TimeLinx Project and Service Management platform to our CRM clients, we will be able to provide additional functionality and better service the needs and requirements of those that services are a core aspect of their business," said Peter Wolf President of Azamba Consulting, adding, "We constantly seek to improve our customers' business processes in order to increase the ROI of their operations."

"We at TimeLinx are very excited about the opportunity of partnering with Azamba," stated Jeffrey Gregorec, Executive Vice President of Sales and General Manager at TimeLinx. "They are recognized as North America's top Sage CRM organization and our Project and Service Management platform is a perfect complement to the solutions Azamba implements and supports. Our companies augment one another very well, and we are very proud that they've agreed to represent our solution."
