FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Secure Investors Group, Inc. to acquire
Murray, Tymkew and Associates and Springport Insurance Agency

The integration of companies brings current policyholders of both Murray, Tymkew and Associates and Springport Insurance Agency additional value through exceptional customer service and financial solutions. Depending on the needs of a client, this could include retirement savings, retirement income tactics, mortgage or investments.

Mike Tymkew welcomes the partnership with Secure Investors Group and will be working closely with the Co-Founder, Bryan E. Spencer, to ensure the transition is seamless for clients. It was clear to Mike that Secure Investors Group is a great fit for existing clients, providing more carriers, competitive pricing, and personalized service.

"The partnership with Secure Investors Group is an exciting milestone in offering a holistic approach and continued outstanding service to our clients," said Mike.

Bryan E. Spencer, the Co-Founder of Secure Investors Group, has a long-established financial career in researching the financial services industry, finding partnership opportunities that create exceptional value for business owners and their consumers.

Bryan E. Spencer has acquired several practices over the years – and through his insight and knowledge, business owners and their clients will find exciting new services and synergy that can benefit their personal financial situation.

Murray, Tymkew, and Associates was established in 1919, focused on personal and commercial insurance, health insurance and financial services. Murray, Tymkew, and Associates were recently awarded the Top Producing Agency with Michigan Agency Partners.

Springport Insurance Agency is the oldest insurance agency located in the heart of downtown, serving four generation of clients. Mike Tymkew realized by uniting with the Secure Family of companies he was able to provide his clients better service and enhanced offerings.

Secure Investors Group, Inc., is a financial service and insurance firm established in 1997 with the commitment to helping business owners and clients achieve their financial goals for the benefit of themselves, their families, and their businesses. Through our affiliated organizations, we offer a diverse array of financial planning services to individuals in Michigan and surrounding states.
