

For Immediate Release: Anti-Human Trafficking Collaborative comes to Southeast Valley | January 21, 2023

Queen Creek AZ, January 21, 2023: Until All Are Set Free announces an Anti-Human Trafficking Training, Collaborative and Vendor Fair, January 21 in Queen Creek, Arizona.

Hosted by Until All Are Set Free, an anti-trafficking collaborative that exists to end exploitation through connection, awareness, and action.

The Collaborative and Training is from 10 AM - 4 PM, come early for breakfast at 9 AM. Rebecca Bender, author of “The Pursuit of Love,” advocate and thought leader for the anti-human trafficking movement will be the keynote speaker. Additionally, there will be renowned speakers from the anti-trafficking movement in the greater Phoenix area and beyond, as well as a panel of brilliant minds who are helping our community become a part of the solution. In addition to the training, an ethically made, fair-trade market will take place, along with vendor booths from organizations doing this important work in the valley.
