

+1 (702) 485-3894
info@corklv.com
950 Pilot Rd, Ste E., Las Vegas, NV 89119

Press Release: Cork Distributors Has Completed the Acquisition of Encore Beverage

Cork Distributors has announced the completion of its acquisition of Encore Beverage in Northern Nevada. This acquisition marks a significant milestone for Cork Distributors, as it will enable them to expand their presence in Northern Nevada and provide better distribution across the state. The addition of Encore Beverage's unique selection of hand-crafted wine, beer, and spirits will also enhance Cork Distributors' product portfolio, providing customers with even more great options to choose from.

Encore Beverage was founded in 2007 by Mark Baldwin, an industry veteran with decades of experience running a wine shop and restaurant. He established Encore Beverage as a local, family-owned, and operated business with a mission to serve their customers and exceed their expectations. Over the years, the company has cultivated strong relationships with customers in Northern Nevada, earning a reputation for their expertly curated wine portfolio and exceptional service.

With the acquisition of Encore Beverage, Cork Distributors gains a solid distribution platform in Northern Nevada, allowing for better points of distribution and increased market reach. Encore Beverage will continue to operate under the same name, and Mark Baldwin has become a partner in Cork Distributors Holdings. This partnership allows Cork Distributors to benefit from the synergies created by bringing together two well-respected companies in the industry.

Cork Distributors' customers will also benefit from the acquisition through access to Encore Beverage's world-class selection of hand-crafted wine, beer, and spirits. The addition of Encore's portfolio to Cork's existing offerings creates an unrivaled product portfolio in the state of Nevada, providing customers with even more variety and choice. With both companies' shared commitment to exceptional customer service, the acquisition promises to enhance the overall customer experience for Cork's customers.

In addition to providing better distribution and a broader product portfolio, the acquisition of Encore Beverage reinforces Cork Distributors' commitment to growth and expansion. Over the years, Cork has established a reputation as one of the leading distributors of wine, beer, and spirits in Nevada, with a focus on providing exceptional service and high-quality products. The addition of Encore Beverage's expertise and resources will only strengthen Cork's position in the market and enable them to better serve their customers.

- +1 (702) 485-3894
- info@corklv.com
- 950 Pilot Rd, Ste E., Las Vegas, NV 89119

The acquisition of Encore Beverage is a significant development for Cork Distributors and their customers. Through this partnership, Cork gains a solid distribution platform in Northern Nevada, access to a unique and world-class portfolio of wine, beer, and spirits, and the resources to continue its growth and expansion. Meanwhile, customers will benefit from even more great products and exceptional service. It's an exciting time for Cork Distributors as they look to build on their reputation and solidify their position as a leading distributor of wine, beer, and spirits in the region.