

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Tiny Stars Creative Achieves Certification as a Women-Owned Business in Washington State

Mukilteo, WA – April 18, 2024

Tiny Stars Creative, a leading design agency based in Mukilteo, Washington, is proud to announce its official certification as a Women-Owned Business in Washington. This certification highlights the agency's commitment to diversity, equality, and the advancement of women in the business community.

Led by Dawn Anderson, Tiny Stars Creative has established itself as a premier destination for web design, graphic design, and branding solutions. With a dedication to creativity, innovation, and client satisfaction, the agency has earned recognition for its exceptional work and unwavering commitment to excellence.

Becoming certified as a Women-Owned Business is a significant milestone for Tiny Stars Creative. It underscores the agency's ongoing efforts to foster inclusivity and empower women in design and entrepreneurship. This certification reflects the agency's values and opens up new opportunities for growth and collaboration in the local community and beyond.

"We are thrilled to receive certification as a Women-Owned Business in Washington State," said Dawn Anderson, Founder and Creative Director of Tiny Stars Creative. "This achievement represents a significant milestone for our agency and reinforces our commitment to diversity, equality, and women's empowerment. We look forward to continuing to serve our clients excellently while contributing to women's advancement in the business world."

As a certified Women-Owned Business, Tiny Stars Creative is poised to expand its reach, strengthen its partnerships, and positively impact the design industry and beyond. With a talented team of designers, developers, and strategists, the agency remains dedicated to delivering outstanding results and exceeding client expectations.

For more information about Tiny Stars Creative and its services, visit tinystarscreative.com

About Tiny Stars Creative:

Tiny Stars Creative is a dynamic design agency based in Mukilteo, Washington, specializing in web design, graphic design, and branding solutions. Led by Founder and Creative Director Dawn Anderson, the agency is committed to creativity, innovation, and client satisfaction. With a focus on excellence and inclusivity, Tiny Stars Creative strives to empower women in the business community while delivering exceptional results for its clients.

Contact:

Dawn Anderson
Creative Director/Owner
Tiny Stars Creative
425-243-4176
dawn@tinystarscreative.com
tinystarscreative.com