WHO ARE MMGYMSISTERS?

Originally from Chile and raised in a multicultural household with Mexican and Spanish roots, Marimar and Madison Banus, also known as the “MMGYMSISTERS”, are two exceptional gymnasts. Despite facing unexpected major surgeries that temporarily halted their gymnastics careers, they moved forward winning at international games, such as South American Games, Pan-American Games, World Challenge Cup, Odesur Games, etc. They were awarded a full-ride athletic scholarship to Ball State University

On a mission to inspire and motivate the world to embrace a healthy, fit lifestyle, these two gymnasts not only showcase their impressive skills but also share their fitness journey on social media, gaining over 130K followers in the 1st year. They also conduct online coaching via their personalized coaching app.

Their content breaks the stereotype that exercise is tedious and emphasizes the fun and rewarding aspects of staying active.

We welcome you to join them on their mission to empower individuals to transform their lives through fitness, exploration, culinary delights, and the simple pleasures of life, promising inspiration, motivation, and entertainment from these remarkable athletes-turned-wellness advocates!
