

Michael Mosley

Big Mike is an artist from Indianapolis Indiana. Big Mike started his journey into music at just six years old thanks to his mother singing in the kitchen, leading the artist to spend a lifetime honing and developing his craft.

Over the decades to follow the artist has been in multiple musical groups and worked with a plethora of different producers including the likes of John Howcott and David Morris from A Few Good Men, as well as Montae Clark Rodney Phillips and Melvin Mclain.

Big Mike is also no stranger to live performances, music production, and song writing, having done shows with Issac Hayes and David Banner. Big Mike impressively blends influences of R&B, Urban street and Gospel. Effortlessly captivating listeners with his distinct style, musicianship and artistic expression.

In his spare time Big Mike spends his time with his seven children and in his community. With an exciting year ahead the future looks to be bright for this rising and exciting talent.

Love,

Michael Mosley

