

Montae "KaMo" Xlark, affectionately known as "The Icon" among his peers, is recognized for his unassuming and serene demeanor offstage juxtaposed with his commanding presence during performances. Describing it as a privilege, he embraces the role of being a source of entertainment and inspiration for those in need. Born as the youngest child to two vocalists in Evansville, Indiana, Montae embarked on his musical journey at the age of 15, despite starting relatively late in the field. Transitioning from R&B to a broader emphasis on spreading positivity through his music, he has achieved notable milestones such as serving as an opening act for prominent artists like Issac Hayes, JOE, and R. Kelly, and auditioning for LA Face Records. Montae's dedication to sharing messages of encouragement led him to provide background vocals for esteemed artists like Donald Lawrence, Lacreacia Campbell, Nikki Ross, and Rodney Bryant. His talents were acknowledged when he emerged victorious in the Inspirational Icon contest on 1310 The Light in Indianapolis. Montae's musical prowess further garnered attention when he was featured in the new artist segment of the TV series "The Gospel of Music with Jeff Majors" and contributed to two tracks on the Holy Hip Hop compilation released by EMI Records. Beyond his vocal abilities, Montae is actively involved in songwriting, production, and recording, expressing his aspiration not only to create his own projects but also to amplify the voices of other artists seeking to share their messages with the world.

Love,

Montae Clark

Montae "Kamo" Clark, affectionately known as "The Icon" among his peers, is recognized for his unassuming and serene demeanor offstage juxtaposed with his commanding presence during performances. Describing it as a privilege, he embraces the role of being a source of entertainment and inspiration for those in need. Born as the youngest child to two vocalists in Evansville, Indiana, Montae embarked on his musical journey at the age of 15, despite starting relatively late in the field. Transitioning from R&B to a broader emphasis on spreading positivity through his music, he has achieved notable milestones such as serving as an opening act for prominent artists like Issac Hayes, JOE, and R. Kelly, and auditioning for LA Face Records. Montae's dedication to sharing messages of encouragement led him to provide background vocals for esteemed artists like Donald Lawrence, Lacreacia Campbell, Nikki Ross, and Rodney Bryant. His talents were acknowledged when he emerged victorious in the Inspirational Icon contest on 1310 The Light in Indianapolis. Montae's musical prowess further garnered attention when he was featured in the new artist segment of the TV series "The Gospel of Music with Jeff Majors" and contributed to two tracks on the Holy Hip Hop compilation released by EMI Records. Beyond his vocal abilities, Montae is actively involved in songwriting, production, and recording, expressing his aspiration not only to create his own projects but also to amplify the voices of other artists seeking to share their messages with the world.

Love,

Olivia