SAMUEL SCOVILLE
Senior Staff Accountant

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Prism Tax & Accounting Services Welcomes Samuel Scoville as Senior Staff Accountant

Anacortes, WA – Prism Tax & Accounting Services is pleased to announce the addition of Samuel Scoville as its new Senior Staff Accountant. Sam brings a wealth of experience in tax preparation, auditing, and client engagement, further strengthening Prism's commitment to delivering top-tier financial services.

A dedicated accounting professional, Sam holds a bachelor's degree in accounting from Western Washington University in Bellingham, WA. With a strong background in financial reporting and tax preparation, he is passionate about providing exceptional service and building long-term client trust through effective communication and accurate financial insights.

Beyond his professional expertise, Sam is deeply committed to mentorship and community engagement. As a former mentor for the Western Washington University Accounting Mentorship Program, he has guided aspiring accountants in academic planning and career development, shaping the next generation of financial professionals.

"We are thrilled to welcome Sam to the Prism Tax team," said Dieter Drews, JD, Owner & CEO of Prism Tax & Accounting Services. "His technical expertise, client-focused approach, and dedication to mentorship align perfectly with our mission to provide trusted financial guidance. We are confident that his contributions will enhance the experience and success of our clients."

As Prism Tax & Accounting Services continues to grow throughout the Skagit Valley, the firm remains committed to expanding its expertise and delivering personalized, high-quality financial solutions. With Sam's addition, the team is even better positioned to support individuals and businesses with their tax and accounting needs.
