Nationally Acclaimed Playwright Yonel Aris Unveils Stirring New Work Exploring Motherhood, Family, and Redemption

Hallandale Beach, FL — Nationally acclaimed playwright and director Yonel Aris is set to premiere his newest stage production, Dearest Momma, on Mother’s Day weekend, May 10–11, at the Hallandale Cultural Community Center in South Florida. This powerful drama, staged alongside a full-course dining experience, offers audiences an unforgettable journey through love, loss, and the unbreakable bond between mothers and their children. Tickets are available for $65 at the Eventbrite site.

“Being born and raised in South Florida, I’ve been surrounded by some of the strongest, most selfless women in the world—mothers who held their families together with love, faith, and pure grit,” says playwright Yonel Aris. “Dearest Momma is my love letter to them. It’s a story about real people, real struggles, and the kind of mothers South Florida produces—resilient, wise, and full of heart. This play puts them front and center, where they’ve always belonged.”

Set in a vibrant, family-owned beauty salon, Dearest Momma invites audiences into the intimate world of Chloe Simone—a young woman caught between honoring her devout mother and escaping the legacy of her troubled brother. When an unexpected tragedy strikes just days before Mother’s Day, Chloe is forced to reckon with family, faith, and forgiveness in a way that will change her life forever.
