Musical, Inc. Launches the Miami International Arts & Music Youth Festival (MIAMY Fest)
A New Cultural Landmark for Youth Talent and Global Exchange Arrives in Miami

Miami, FL – [Today's Date] – Musical, Inc., a nonprofit organization dedicated to youth music education and artistic excellence, is proud to announce the launch of the Miami International Arts & Music Youth Festival (MIAMY Fest) — a bold, visionary event set to make Miami a global center for youth arts and cultural exchange.

The inaugural edition of MIAMY Fest will take place March 1–8, 2026, bringing together exceptional youth ensembles and performers from around the world to participate in a week-long celebration of music, diversity, and creativity. Events will include orchestral and choral concerts, international showcases, workshops, cultural activities, and competitions held across some of Miami's most iconic venues.

"MIAMY Fest is more than a festival — it's a movement to empower young artists, connect cultures, and inspire communities through the universal language of the arts," said Juan Carlos Gonzalez, CEO of Musical, Inc. and Festival Organizer. "In a city as dynamic as Miami, this festival will reflect the best of who we are: diverse, creative, and full of promise."

A Global Gathering With Local Roots

Participants from across North, Central, and South America, Europe, and the Caribbean will share the stage with some of Miami's finest young musicians, creating a platform for cross-cultural learning and global friendship. The Festival will also highlight Miami's rich multicultural identity by inviting all participating ensembles to present music or performances representing their own regions and traditions.

A Year-Round Vision

While the main events will be held in March, MIAMY Fest aims to expand its presence year-round with community concerts, workshops, and arts education programming, making a lasting impact on Miami's artistic landscape and youth development.
