FVF Law Earns #1 Spot on TopVerdict.com's 2025 Texas Settlement Rankings for Fall Accidents

An $11.5 million settlement in a construction fall case cements FVF Law's place among Texas's most effective advocates for injured workers.

Austin, Texas – August 11, 2026 – FVF Law was recognized by TopVerdict.com for achieving the #1 settlement in Texas in the categories of Fall Accidents and Fall from Height in 2025, with an $11.5 million recovery for a client represented by attorney Mark Farris¹.

The case, filed anonymously to protect the client's privacy, involved a serious fall accident at a construction site. An $11.5 million result in this category is a landmark outcome — one that reflects both the severity of the harm this client endured, and the skill and tenacity required to hold a construction company accountable.

TopVerdict.com is an independent legal research platform that ranks the top jury verdicts and settlements across the United States, organized by state, year, and practice area. Recognition on its "Number 1 Settlements in Texas in 2025" list places FVF Law among the most accomplished trial and litigation firms in the state.

"Being named number one in Texas for fall accident settlements by TopVerdict.com is a tremendous honor, but what it really means to us is that we are making a genuine difference for injured Texans who need someone in their corner. Construction accidents can destroy lives in an instant, and these clients deserve attorneys who will fight as hard as the evidence demands. This recognition reflects our entire team's commitment to that standard — and it fuels us to keep raising it."

— Josh Fogelman, Founding Partner, FVF Law

"Every case I take is about more than a legal result—it's about standing up for someone whose life has been changed through no fault of their own and helping secure the justice and financial security they deserve. In this case, our client suffered a catastrophic fall on a construction site that ultimately claimed his life and forever changed the lives of his family. We pursued every available avenue to hold the responsible parties accountable and to obtain a result that truly reflected the magnitude of their loss. I'm proud of what our team accomplished, and I'm deeply grateful for the trust our clients placed in us throughout the process."
