Get a grip

Business management securely in hand.

Volo Fits

If you're an independent trainer or multi-facility club. If you have a few clients or thousands of members. If you offer one service or a wide range. If you start out small and grow a little or a lot. Volo fits your business with the functionality you need at a price point you can afford.

You Rule

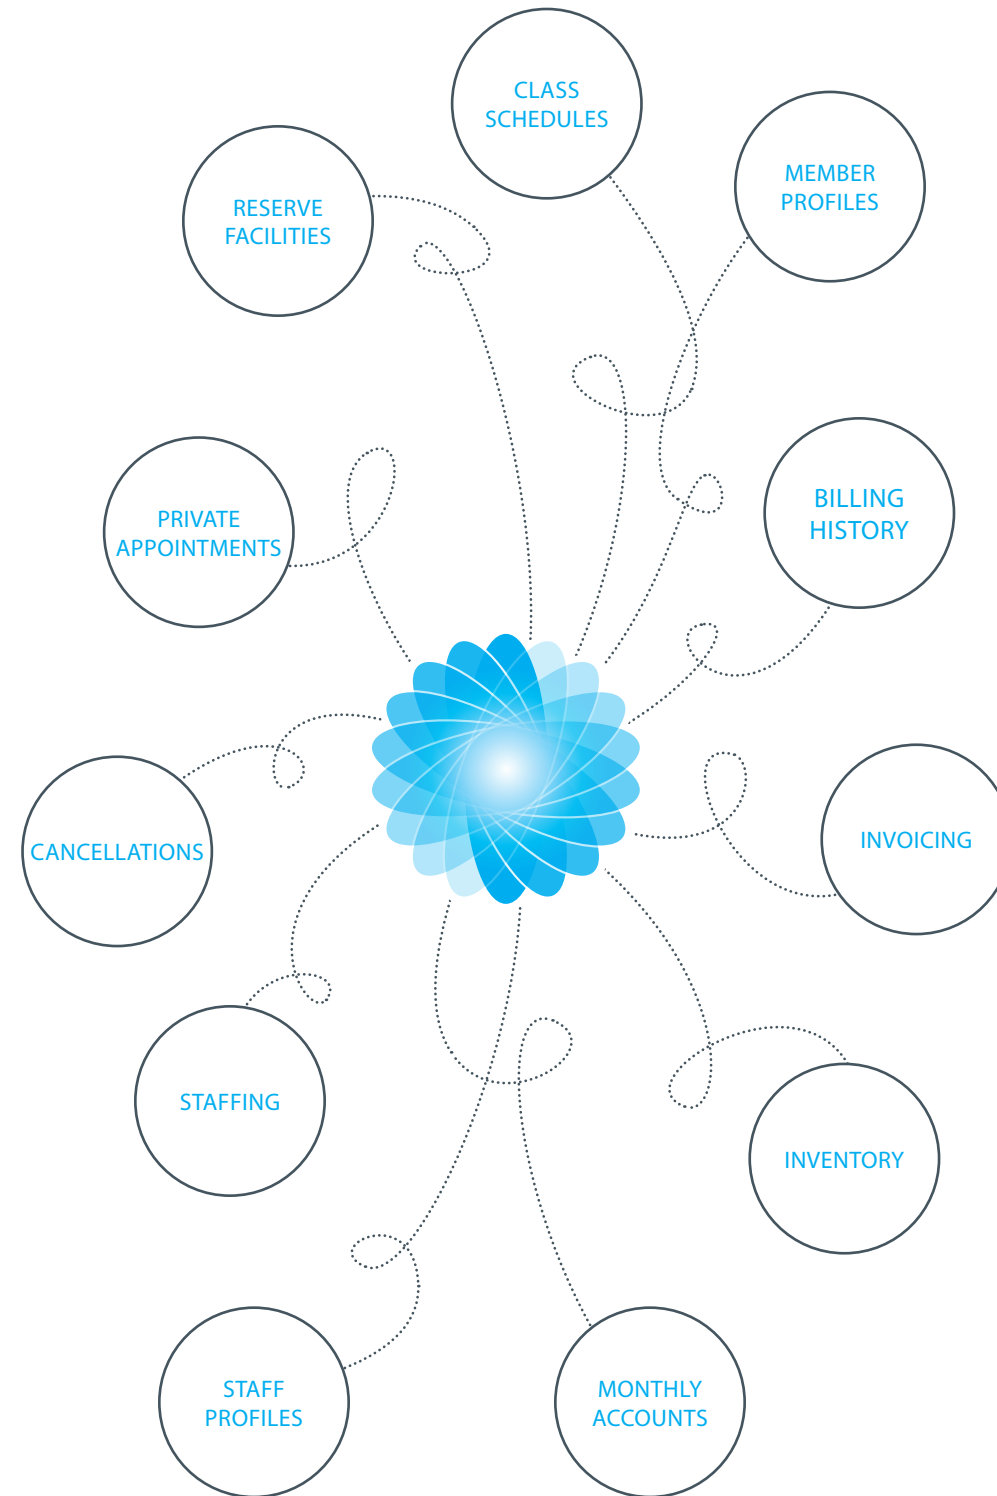

From simple things like your hours, your locations and your services, down to details like your pricing options, your staff pay scales and your desired level of access to information. Volo lets you decide what's right for your business.

Secure Revenue

Billing for services properly is critical to your bottom line. Have appointments and purchases automatically added to member accounts. Have pre-paid packages accurately tracked and have extra charges and fees consistently applied. Volo makes invoicing consistently accurate and done within seconds.

Knowledge is Power

You can't improve your business until you know how it's doing. Instantly understand the number of new memberships, top reasons for cancellation, most popular classes, most requested trainers, month-to-date revenues and staffing expenses. Volo helps you clearly see your business and pinpoint revenue opportunities.

An End to Errors

Instantly see facility capacity and staff availability every time you book an appointment. Gone are the double bookings. Gone are incorrect staff schedules. Gone are recurring appointments that are easily forgotten. Volo puts an end to expensive and frustrating scheduling mistakes.

Service That Rocks

Create member profiles with contact info, interests, health alerts, billing history, membership expiration and account balance. Give members secure web access to book appointments from the comfort of home. Offer email and text messaging appointment reminders so they get the alerts they want in the way they want them. Volo lets you make the customer king.

Management 101

Know staff skills, communicate clearly and pay accurately. Properly credit appointments to staff pay based on individual earning agreements. Match staff skills to member needs and receive alerts when professional certifications are due. Give staff secure web access to schedules and automate email notifications to ensure clear and easy communication. Volo gives you the tools to manage better.
